Wednesday Night—Al G. Field's Minstrels.

Next—"As Told in the Hills."

Al G. Field Tonight. Popular Al G. Field and his minstrels are in the city. The street parade at noon and the famous band attracted a big crowd.

The array of singers, balladists, performers and musicians, with the Al G. Field greater minstrels this season is formidable, and from all accounts, the best classical aggregation ever selected for an Al G. Field production. It includes some of the most noted singers on the American concert and operatic stage, particularly prominent being Paul La Londe the well known Canadian basso, who for a number of years has been vocal director for Mr. Field; Boardman S. Carnes, best remembered as the basso with the Quaker City quartet, and who has been with Mr. Field as interlocutor for the past few seasons; John C. Dickens, whose fine baritone was heard to advantage all last season in Nevin's beautiful song, "My Rosary," and who, this year, has added to his repertoire of sacred songs, "The Door of Hope," Roman Johnstone, a noted balladist whose sympathetic tenor is equally effective either in classical selections or tender, touching minstrel melodies; George F. Martin, who has delighted audiences on both sides of the Atlantic; Walter Sherwood, one of America's youngest operatic singers; Otis Riggs baritone; Walter Essman, tenor; Earl Flynn, E. J. Burns, Harry Woods and many others.

Hoyt's "A Texas Steer."

That happy satirical farce-comedy, Hoyt's "A Texas Steer," will be given at the Kentucky December 9. In "A Texas Steer" the misery of the life of office-seekers as told by a colored applicant from the newly elected congressman's district is considered one of the cleverest hits that has graced the stage in many years. Hoyt's faculty of going from the sublime to the ridiculous in dialogue and situations, is as amazing as it is amusing and entertaining, and more truisms are brought out in his productions than in the works of any other American playwright. "A Texas Steer" will deservedly prove an immense attraction here. Frank M. Readick as "Maverick Brander," Nina Wilber is the "Bossy," and many of the old favorites have been retained.

'Twill Help You

Woman's Relief

Cardui, the woman's remedy, has been known for many years as "Woman's Relief," since it has positively proven its great value in the treatment of womanly diseases.

'Twill help you, if you are a sufferer from any of the ills peculiar to women which can be reached by medicine. Why? Because it has done that for many thousands of other sick women, as grateful letters from them, received every day, clearly describe. Because its ingredients are exclusively vegetable, and contain no mineral or poisonous drugs.

For headache, backache, pressing-down pains, nervousness, irritability, and other symptoms of general female weakness, Cardui has been found quick and safe relief.

Mrs. R. L. Denney, of Huntsville, Ala., writes: "I think Cardui is far ahead of anything for weak women. It does me more good than any medicine I have ever taken. I cannot praise it too highly. I think it is the best woman's medicine on earth." Sold everywhere. Try it.

Kentucky Saturday, shot the largest deer that was killed in Lewis county, New York last season. She says, however, that there is little glory in the achievement for it was as near an accident as such a thing could be. Miss Lee, who is one of the best rifle shots in the country, uses a shotgun almost as well as she does a rifle, and next to hunting big game, duck shooting is one of her favorite pastimes. Miss Lee had the head mounted, where it hangs in her summer home on the shore of Lake Michigan, and as proof of her story she has a number of photographs of herself and the deer that was taken by one of the party. "I don't wonder that people want more proof of a story like that," she said, "for I'm sure I would not believe it if it were told anyone else."

XMAS SPIRIT

REMEMBER THE POOR AND CONTRIBUTE TO TREE.

Sun Again Aiding in Union Rescue Mission Entertainment for Little Ones.

The Christmas spirit is in the air; the show windows of the stores reflect the season, and yesterday quite a number of that ever increasing army of early shoppers was down with many lists, making selections. The displays of toys in the windows, of course, are attracting the most attention, and at one prominent store yesterday afternoon it was a sight good to behold to see the little tots "choosing" their gifts out of windows generous in their displays of those things dear to boys and girls.

With the great feast and festival day only three weeks hence, The Sun is pleased to again direct attention to the annual Christmas tree which Mr. and Mrs. Chiles, of the Rescue Mission give the poor of Paducah. These trees are annual events, and through the co-operation of the merchants, and the press, they have become greater with each succeeding year.

The Sun's readers have always been generous in their contributions and The Sun hopes this year they will be equally as liberal as they have been in the past.

From now until Christmas day, The Sun will accept contributions for the tree,—anything will be acceptable—clothing, toys, candies and fruits and nuts, or money. Everything contributed will be turned over to the tree and go to make glad the heart of some poor unfortunate.

Fill in the coupon below and send The Sun something today,—a dime, a quarter, or any small change:

STEAMER MONTANA IS BURNED.

Fire Is Thought to Have Started While Vessel Was at Sea.

Philadelphia, Dec. 4.—The British steamship Montana of the Atlantic Transport line, which arrived here yesterday from London, was today damaged by fire to the extent of $3,000. The fire was discovered when the hatches were opened to unload the cargo, and quickly spread over the entire vessel. The fireboats, after a hard fight, got the flames under control.

Why Thirteen is Unlucky.

It is usually stated that the superstitious objection to sitting thirteen at a table in Christian countries was based on the fact of the last supper, when Christ and His twelve disciples sat down to eat together, immediately before the Savior was seized by His enemies.

But in the Norse mythology, which is supposed to antedate the introduction of Christianity among the Northmen, we find the superstition referred to the fact that at a banquet of the gods, Loki, the spirit of mischief, intruded himself, making thirteen at the table, wherefore there was a fight, and Baldour, a young hero especially loved by all the gods, was killed. For the fact is the objection to this number seems to have existed even before Christianity. Among the Turks the number is so disliked and feared that it is never even named; with the Aztecs, the aborigines of Mexico, it was believed to have magic power, and a like fancy has been found in other Indian tribes. Among the ignorant blacks of the South the fear of this number in any connection is actually absurd, but whether it is a survival of the Voodoo worship of their ancestors, it is impossible to say, for the superstition has a strong hold everywhere, even among those who should know better than to be swayed by it. In Italy it is never used in making up the numbers of the favorite lotteries, and in Paris it is omitted in numbering the houses on the streets.—House keeper.
